

The Practice of Professional Ukrainian Language Communication

Elective course of Ukrainian as a foreign language

This elective course will help

- supplement active vocabulary of medical terms in Ukrainian language;
- extend inter-personal and cross-cultural communication;
- optimize creative skills;
- use Ukrainian language in different situations of social and professional interaction, e.g. during practice at medical establishments;
- keep on progressing in reading, writing and speaking;
- interact with patients.

Elective Course Structure

Contents Module 1

	Topic
1.	Human organism and its systems.
2.	To be a doctor: my profession.
3.	Medical staff and its functions.
4.	Medical equipment; medical examination.
5.	Language etiquette at the workplace. Dialogues “At the Hospital”, “The Influenza”.

Elective Course Structure

Contents Module 2

	Topic
6.	Therapist-patient interaction.
7.	At the cardiology department: doctor-patient professional communication.
8.	At the gastroenterology department: doctor-patient professional communication.
9.	At the pulmonology and ENT departments: doctor-patient professional communication.

Sample Exercise on «Medical Equipment, Doctor's Examination» topic

Learn the names of these items in Ukrainian language

What tools doctors might use in case of ...?

Listening comprehension, reading texts, watching and discussing videos

Learning professional vocabulary and grammar material from functional examples will help train professional communication skills and extend competent interaction during practical classes in medical educational establishments.

Thank you for attention!

ukraine@vnmu.edu.ua

