

Mission of National Pirogov Memorial Medical University, Vinnytsya:

- train highly professional specialists in the field of health care on the basis of quality, integrity, equality of opportunity, academic freedom, university autonomy;
- preserve and develop scientific potential, develop and implement innovative technologies;
- to ensure high level of treatment and prevention work, medical expertise, integration of modern achievements into medical practice;
- actively cooperate with central and local executive bodies, employers, public organizations on creation and implementation of educational programs and medical care;
- create conditions for self-development, realization of interests, abilities and constant professional growth for higher education applicants;
- bear social responsibility to society for the quality of training of higher education applicants, effective organization of incessant postgraduate education, level of scientific development, implementation in medical and educational activity the achievements of national and world medicine.

Vision of National Pirogov Memorial Medical University, Vinnytsya:

National Pirogov Memorial Medical University, Vinnytsya is a well-known leader in Ukraine and all over the world in training competitive medical professionals, in which:

- qualitative educational process, innovative scientific developments, practical training with their social orientation are organically combined;
- there is an atmosphere of academic integrity and responsibility of everyone for the result of activities, promoting the development and self-improvement of the educational process participants;
- modern practical training of applicants and the provision of treatment - prevention aid are carried out in a multidisciplinary university clinic and in the clinical bases of the university;
- educational and scientific traditions are preserved and the desire for excellence is maintained;
- integration into the world and European space of higher education is carried out as a result of internationalization of educational and research programs;
- the high reputation of graduates among employers is maintained;
- there is a development of basic and applied medical science, intellectual potential for the medical field of the country.